

The Amicale Internationale des Chefs de Reception et Sous Directeurs des Grand Hotels or the International Association for Front Office Managers and Assistant Hotel Managers

AICR is a non-profitable organisation which stands for International Association of Front Office Managers of Luxury Hotels (Amicale Internationale des Sous Directeurs et Chefs de Réception des Grand Hôtels).

The organisation was founded in 1964 in Cote d'Azur, France. The official registered office of AICR is located at the Hotel Ritz Paris, France.

Over the past 58 years, AICR has developed into an international organisation and continuing to grow, currently in 18 countries: including Austria, Australia, Czech Republic, Estonia, France (Cote d'Azur & Paris), Germany, Indonesia, Italy, Morocco, New Zealand, Poland, Qatar, Singapore, Spain, Switzerland, United Arab Emirates & United Kingdom.

Vision – A professional platform for all Hoteliers to inspire, empower and create exceptional experiences for all our guests.

AIM - We endeavour to work together across ALL hotel brands; to encourage members to exchange innovative ideas for creating stronger service culture; and to foster development for future front-of-house professionals.

The AICR Australia Junior Membership is offered to hospitality students wishing to pursue front office and hotel roles in their further career. The annual membership fee is $50.00 per student.

AICR Junior membership benefits include:

- Bridging their academic work with contemporary hotel front office in four- & five-star international hotels
- Professional networking/direct connection to front office professionals to collaborate on school projects where appropriate
- Placement/employment opportunities
- Workshops for learning and developing opportunities
- Participation in student competition
- Invitation to workshops
- Invitation for special networking events and hotel sites
- A strong relationship with local, national, and international like-minded professionals, where we promote social interaction amongst its members and cities
- Creating a personal profile
- Be provided with online training opportunities with 'Lighthouse Organizational Development' to access the Online Leadership Certification (LC) program which recognises the excellence of front office roles
- Invitation to attend the International Congress

*Please contact AICR Australia President Sevag Keroghlian if you wish to join AICR Australia as a Junior Member.
Email: President@aicraustralia.com.au*